Some lists have circles in their name fields, you can use these to indicate which are active, available, carried etc by marking them lightly with pencil. This includes a number of armour sets on the combat page for characters who regularly fight in different sets of armor or with defensive spells or forcefields.

Print Page 6 on cardstock and the rest on plain paper. Punch all pages (including an additional blank cardstock page) for comb binding; page 2 on the right, all others on the left. Bind with a zip binding (A quick release binding compatible with comb punched pages), Page 6 first, then 2, then 4, then any others in whatever order you see fit, and finish off with the blank cardstock.

Comb punching and zip bindings should be available at office supply stores like Staples or Office Depot.

Another option would be a three ring binder.
